February 28, 2023

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great excitement that I announce the new Program Director for the Geraldine Young Family Life Center, Ameenah Yasin. Ameenah's role helps to support the overall strategy for the Y in Druid Hill. She will report to me.

Ameenah is motivated by her mission to help others find fulfillment and belonging. This is evident in the body of work throughout her career including working with youth in The Bridges Project, returning citizens in Project SERVE, and with individuals experiencing persistent mental health illness in Safe Haven. In her most recent role as a Program Lead for Workforce Development at Living Classrooms, she led the Workforce Development team in launching several successful program cohorts, meeting key deliverables, and establishing relationships with community stakeholders.

As a Baltimore native and resident, Ameenah is inspired by her husband and children to strive to be the best version of herself. I am excited to work with Ameenah as she helps us develop programming that will serve homeless women and children on their journey to permanent housing.

Please join me in welcoming Ameenah to the Y family!

Thank you,

Tiffany Reinhardt
